Will Ty Cobb Finish Above 400?—Will Harvard Miss Brickley?

(By George R. Holmes.) (United Press Staff Correspondent.) New York, Sept. 4.—The sphere that comes up out of the eastern horizon mornings is beginning to assume a slightly oval form, and those who have been speculating as to Ty Cobb's chances of finishing with a 400 average are beginning to wonder how Harvard is going to get along without Charley Brickley. The well known football season which has been on its way for a year is almost here.

PERCY D. HAUGHTON, FAMOUS FOOTBALL COACH, NOW A "ROOKIE" AT PLATTSBURG

Percy D. Haughton as a "rookie."

Percy D. Haughton, the famous Harvard football coach and past Crimson gridiron star, has lined up with the "rookies" at Plattsburg. He is an apt soldier, with plenty of "push" in him instilled by his long experience on the football field. The famous football hero is seen here pulling on a tent rope at the Military Instruction Camp, where he is being taught the rudiments of a commanding volunteer.

Bulgarian Women to Women of America

(United Press staff correspondent.) (Copyright 1915 by the United Press. Copyright in Great Britain.) Sofia, Bulgaria, July 27.—(By mail to Nish, to Rome, to London, to New York.)—The woman who is queen of Bulgaria has an interesting message for the women of the United States. It is that all who possibly can should learn the Red Cross work. Queen Eleonora, who by reason of her work as a nurse on the actual field of battle in the Russo-Japanese war and the two Balkan wars has been called another Florence Nightingale, talks in a way familiar to American readers. Her message is such as might come from one of the American women who have won their place in world affairs. And this is not strange, for Bulgaria sometimes is called the America of the Balkans.

service are perhaps too much, but there is nothing to hinder a preparation that will enable them to contribute their full share towards the alleviation of the horrors of war should the moment ever come when their services may be needed. "It was largely the desire to study your own American schools for the training of nurses that prompted my plans last year for visiting the United States but which the clouded international horizon at the time forced me temporarily to abandon. But that is a dream which I expect yet to realize and in the meantime through the aid of the Red Cross unit which the American society has sent us, we are proceeding rapidly with our reorganization in Bulgaria.

Large Crowd Watched Final Round in Rain

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 4.—Despite a downpour of rain which made the fairways soggy, a large crowd followed Robert Gardner of Chicago, and John G. Anderson, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., today when they began the final round for the American amateur championship at the Detroit country club. The greens were slow and the putting uncertain. There was little to choose between the men and betting was at even money. Gardner won the national title several years ago and Anderson was runner up to Jerome D. Travers in 1913. Both are players of the highest class, but Gardner is somewhat erratic and Anderson is noted for his steady and consistent play.

To appreciate the authority with which her majesty speaks—her subject is that of women's work in war—American readers should know that she spent years of preparation in the leading hospitals of Europe, served them for 14 months at the head of the Russian Imperial Ambulance in Manchuria during the war with Japan, prepared further for the work and served her own country when the Balkan war began. She worked not only in the hospitals, but under the enemy's fire at the front. The gratitude of the army and the nation was supplemented by military decorations awarded solely for personal bravery.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS.

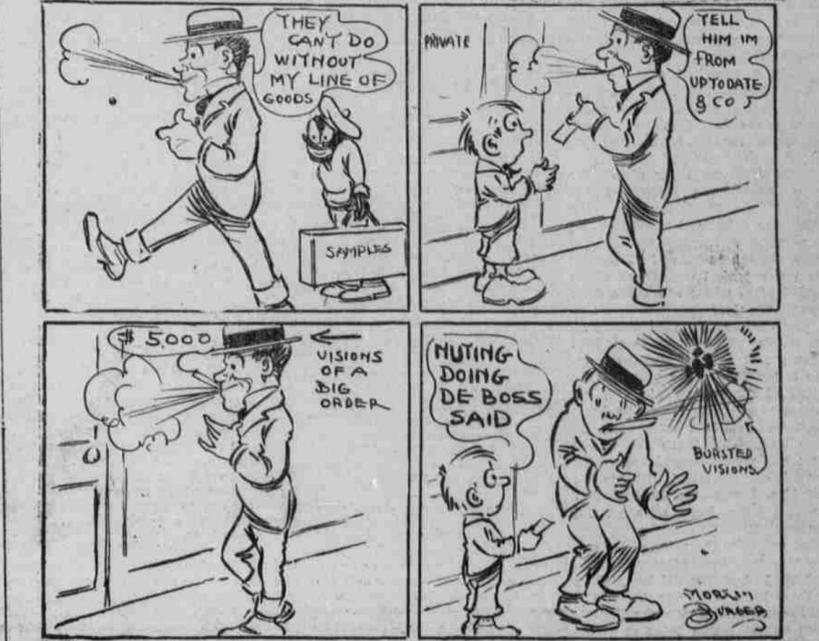

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—Willie Ritchie, former lightweight champion, left today for New York for his bout with Joe Shugrue, October 4. Ritchie plans to see the McFarland-Gibbons bout in New York September 11. Porterville, Cal., Sept. 4.—Porterville baseball fans are making plans to attend the coming world's series in a special car. It is assumed here that the series will be played between Boston and Philadelphia. San Francisco, Sept. 4.—One hundred prominent horsemen will celebrate the revival of thoroughbred racing in California at a dinner, September 9.

Her statement to the United Press follows: "After her natural role of mother, no greater, no nobler, and no more important field of usefulness is held out to the woman of today than that of the Red Cross or its auxiliary work. Only a woman who has known personally all the horrors of modern warfare can grasp what this field really means. And strange as it may seem, the field today is larger and more pressing than ever before. With all the perfected means of wholesale destruction which modern warfare has at its command, the operations of the world over for caring for the wounded have become very inadequate.

POLK TAX PAYMENTS HEAVY.

Tuesday was the last day to pay taxes without penalty, provided no part of the tax had been previously paid. As a result, Deputy Sheriff Hooker and J. E. Richter have been completely "snowed under" with the turned over to County Treasurer Holman of $5,665.28, which had been collected last week, and from Saturday night to Monday night more than $2000 more had been collected. Then the mail receipts became so numerous that the two deputies had to stop to add up the totals. It is safe to say, however, that several thousand dollars have been received.—Dallas Itemizer.

amongst our people. Your American missionary schools here have rendered the language as common amongst our poorer classes as your Roberts college and your College for Girls at Constantinople have rendered it general amongst our more cultured people. And with the introduction in Bulgaria of all that is best in your American system of charity organization, I am certain that more lasting and more important ties than ever will have been established between us."

PUTS QUALITY BEFORE PRICE Buick Dealer Declares Motor Car Service is All Important Factor—Speaks From Experience—Otto Wilson Defines Policies on Which Company Has Built Success. Now that most of the motor car companies have made their 1916 announcements there is a great deal of talk in motoring circles concerning the prices at which the new cars are to be sold. Along with these discussions there has been much talk concerning the lowest price at which a satisfactory motor car can be marketed.

however, they find out that motor car service is vastly more important than motor car price. There is a minimum below which it is impossible to sell a satisfactory motor car; that is, a car that will give satisfactory service. The Buick Motor company always has been guided by that great truth in making and selling cars. Buick prices are made as low as it is possible to make them, and at the same time deliver a car that will give the motoring satisfaction the average buyer expects.

EARLY RESIDENT DIES.

J. H. Collins, an old-time resident of Polk county, died at his home in Independence last Saturday, after a short illness. Mr. Collins was born in Gallipolis, Ohio, in 1841, moved to Jefferson county, Iowa, when 14 years of age, and in 1869 married Martha J. Swain. He came to Oregon in 1874, locating at Independence. He leaves a widow and four sons and a sister. His sons are: William E. and James Collins, Independence; David J. Collins, Seattle, and Charles Collins, Elsmore, California.—Dallas Itemizer.

LOS ANGELES BEACH RESORTS HAVE A BATHING SUIT WAR; MEN CENSORS INSIST WOMEN SHALL WEAR SKIRTS; BUT THEY WON'T

Los Angeles, Sept. 4.—(Special.)—A few inches of cloth more or less is responsible for the most tempestuous war over bathing suits that has ever torn the resorts adjacent to this city. The opposing factions—the board of censors on one side and the young women who object to wearing skirts in the water on the other—each declares it will be victorious; the neutrals say to date the honors are even. A crisis is expected that will determine what sort of bathing suits will allow full freedom for the woman swimmer and at the same time meet the requirements of those who object to the one-piece variety that apparently is favored.

A Bathing Girl's Parade.

The agitation began with the bathing girl's parade, an institution that is looked upon to demonstrate the prevailing surf styles for the season. It was noted that the prize winners' costumes were not only dainty and pretty but economical in the use of material. Some of the advance styles shown in the parade caused gasps of astonishment followed, but it was notable that none of the thousands who came from outside to witness the parade were among the protestants. Women Against Skirts.

Here came a practical reversal of the male censors' judgment. The women reported that women could not enjoy a plunge in the surf handicapped by a skirt that impeded their efforts in using the legs and arms, and that, as the skirts failed to remain in a skirt like attitude in the water, they were useless, dangerous and a few other things not conducive to the joys of bathing. The women censors approved of the very short skirt, almost the one-piece bathing suit, but decried the styles they found adopted by the men.
